U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Brian West commenced supervision on January 20, 2022, in the District of New Jersey. He completed the New Jersey Reentry Program on February 4, 2022, satisfied court ordered financial obligations, and has been employed with FedEx since September 2022.

A urine sample was collected on April 5, 2023, that resulted positive for alcohol. Initially the Individual Under Supervision (IUS) denied any use of alcohol. Mr. West subsequently admitted to having a glass of wine with his dinner a few days prior. The IUS signed an admission form admitting to the consumption of wine and was reminded of the special condition prohibiting the use of alcohol. Mr. West inquired as to why the condition was imposed, and this officer advised that he had reported excessive use of alcohol prior to sentencing. The IUS understood and advised that he would no longer consume alcohol.

At this time, we are requesting that no court action be taken. The U.S. Probation Office will continue to monitor Mr. West through random urine screens. Should Mr. West evade drug testing or show other signs of continued alcohol use, this office will explore other deterrent and monitoring options.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
